ABOUT ME

Karen Vega has more than 25 years of experience in both the public and private sectors as an Administrator and Senior Project Assistant. She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration with an emphasis in Office Systems.

Karen began her career with the City of Los Angeles, working with the Commission for Children, Youth & Their Services and the Youth Opportunity Movement, where she developed a strong foundation in public service and program administration.

She later transitioned to the private sector, joining a well-established clothing manufacturing company where she oversaw Human Resources, Accounting, and Domestic and Overseas Production operations. In this role, she managed day-to-day business functions, supervised staff, handled company finances, and ensured efficient and effective office operations.

Known strong organizational skills, she is committed to streamlining processes, improving operational efficiency, and creating productive work environments that support organizational success.
